From A to B

29.06.12 - 09.08.12

Group show curated by Be Andr.

"Time Is What Prevents Everything From Happening At Once", (John Wheeler)

An end product is a static entity; it was dynamic in the process of its creation. While a logical approach to art will take you from A to B; your imagination can take you everywhere. Artists tend to mix the two and end up with an object that they will claim is finished.

If time is a measure of the interval between two events, then what happens between the two? How much of this transformative move in time are we allowed to observe when we glance at the end product? What is time and what is process? What is between A and B?

Artists: Be Andr (1978, NO), Florian Auer (1984, DE), Juliette Blightman (1980, UK), Michael Sailstorfer (1979, DE) & Albrecht Schäfer (1967, DE).
